

Advance Your Career With a Master's Degree!

“I was attracted to the diversity of the participants and coursework at the Carsey School. I forged deep and meaningful relationships with classmates and faculty. I gained solid credentials in the world of international development and my capstone project led to a full time job after graduation! I highly recommend the Carsey School to RPCVs looking to connect with like-minded individuals working to improve our world.”

Nisha Grimes
MCD '16

ThreeFold Foundation
Peace Corps, Costa Rica, 2010–2012

Carsey/Peace Corps Paul D. Coverdell Fellows Program

Returned Peace Corps Volunteers who enroll via the Coverdell Fellows program are eligible to receive an $8,000 education award. This represents about 30% of total tuition costs to pursue a master's degree at the Carsey School of Public Policy in: Community Development, Public Administration, or Public Policy.

The Carsey School Advantage

- » Our flexible programs fit into your life, offering part-time, low residency, hybrid learning, and evening class options.
- » Start Fall, Spring, or Summer.
- » Engage in hands-on learning and grow your network of change-makers like you.
- » Achieve your full potential, effect change, and advance your career.

Graduate prepared for a career with impact and the knowledge required for interdisciplinary problem-solving, insightful analysis, effective advocacy, compelling communications, and winning strategies that lead to impactful change and stronger communities.

Learn more:

carsey.unh.edu/peace-corps

Peace Corps

University of New Hampshire

Carsey School of Public Policy