

Advance Your Career With a Master's Degree!

“As the HR Director for a large NH Municipality, I can speak to the growing need for educated and skilled professionals. We are facing a record number of baby boomer retirements. Finding people with an education in Public Administration, Community Development, or Public Policy is so beneficial for bringing innovative ideas to Municipal management and for our current employees' career advancement and enrichment.”

Jennifer Johnston
Human Resources Director
City of Concord

Carsey/Concord Education Award

City of Concord employees may be eligible for up to $5,000 in education awards in a matching scholarship between the Carsey School and the City of Concord. Pursue a master's degree at the Carsey School of Public Policy in: Public Administration, Community Development, or Public Policy.

The Carsey School Advantage

- » Our flexible programs fit into your life, offering part-time, low residency, hybrid learning, and evening class options.
- » Start Fall, Spring, or Summer.
- » Engage in hands-on learning and grow your network of change-makers like you.
- » Achieve your full potential, effect change, and advance your career.

Graduate prepared for a career with impact and the knowledge required for interdisciplinary problem-solving, insightful analysis, effective advocacy, compelling communications, and winning strategies that lead to impactful change and stronger communities.

Learn more:
carsey.unh.edu/concord

University of New Hampshire

Carsey School of Public Policy